

Introduction

If you are Interested in Dutch Design, the Amsterdam Design Tour is a perfect opportunity for you to get a first hand experience of the local designer scene. The best place to start is the design department of the Stedelijk Museum. It houses the largest design collection in the Netherlands.

We will arrange meetings for you with a number of Dutch designers in their studios or at special locations. The tour will end in the ArtDeli restaurant where art and design are combined with the best food. We will personalize your visit and will make it an inspiring experience you will always remember.

Meet the designersTour Program:

Your guide will be waiting for you at the entrance of the Stedelijk museum. The design department gives the most extensive overview of design of the last 100 years. We will look at world famous designs but also discuss the way design influences the new generation Dutch designers.

Where Eindhoven is the breeding place for young Dutch Designers, Amsterdam with its international connections is the place where they establish themselves professionally.

We will visit a number of leading Design stores like Droog and Moooi and will meet with designers like Edward van Vliet* or Sjoerd Vroonland*. Meeting designers in their private home or workshop is a unique experience. They love to tell you how they work, and you will first hand experience the proces of design. Their passion is quite contagious!

 subject to availability*

The tour ends at lunchtime or dinnertime at ArtDeli a new type of gallery/restaurant that provides a platform for young designers but also takes care of the visitor that wants to have lunch or dinner amidst art and design.

For those of you who would like an extended tour of two days, including a visit to Eindhoven, the design hub of Dutch Design, we can personalize your visit, like we do during Dutch Design Week. We will take care of your trip and overnight stay, make sure you dine in the trendiest restaurants and accompany you to private meetings with designers. We will make sure you will have a truly memorable stay where the only thing you have to do is open your eyes and mind . Let us take care of the rest!
