The ultimateluxury food experience in historic Amsterdam

Amsterdam has always been a world-class food capital. Throughout its rich history food has been at the heart of social, economic and political life in Amsterdam, as it is today. The culinary climate in Amsterdam has seen some remarkable developments over the last few years, with a unique concentration of Michelin-starred restaurants in the historic part of town. A new generation of chefs is putting the city on the culinary map once again, building on its rich food tradition.

With the Culinary Stars Tour you will explore the history of food in the old Amsterdam Centre and get a taste of what three of the best Michelin star chefs in town have to offer. A unque and unforgettable experience.

Exclusive culinary tours for private parties and corporate groups

The tour combines the rich food history of Amsterdam with a taste of the best food the Dutch capital has to offer at the Michelin starred restaurants in the old city centre. A private guide will take you on a food historical walk through the old city centre to the Michelin starred restaurants, where top chefs invite you for a taste of their specially prepared course based on their signature dish for you. Along the way we visit historical food locations where you learn about the rich background and food trails that can still be found in the names of streets, squares and houses in the oldest part of Amsterdam.
